

Grünewald Guild
Internship Application 2017

Personal Information

Full Name:
E-Mail Address:
Mailing Address:
Primary Phone:
(Optional) Ethnic & cultural background:

Academic Information

Program: Undergraduate / Graduate / Other:
School:
Major or Emphasis:
Current GPA:
Anticipated Graduation (month/year):
I intend to pursue academic credit for this internship (yes/no)
Faculty supervisor:
E-mail:

Life in Community

- 1) Please comment on your preparedness to take on community volunteer tasks such as washing dishes or caring for community spaces:
- 2) Please comment on your preparedness to share common living & sleeping space with people of different backgrounds, ages, and genders:
- 3) Do you have any medical considerations of which we should be aware?
- 4) Do you have any dietary restrictions?

Internship position(s) for which you wish to be considered:

Written Responses:

Please attach a brief typed response (up to 500 words) to each of the following:

- 1) How do you hope to benefit from an internship at the Grünewald Guild?
- 2) What experiences, skills, and abilities will you bring to your internship project?
- 3) How will you engage with the ecumenical Christian community of the Guild?

The completed application may be returned to sarahjane@grunewaldguild.com or to Grünewald Guild, ATTN: Sarah Jane, 19003 River Rd., Leavenworth, WA 98826

References:

Please select one Faculty Reference and one Personal Reference who can comment on your preparedness for this internship position. Reference forms are located at the end of this application form. Please instruct your references to return the forms directly to sarahjane@grunewaldguild.com or to Grünewald Guild, ATTN: Sarah Jane, 19003 River Rd., Leavenworth, WA 98826

Faculty Reference

(Professor, Instructor, or Academic Advisor – not a peer or relative)

This student has applied for an internship at the Grünewald Guild, an intentional arts community and retreat center that is grounded in ecumenical Christian hospitality. The feedback you provide is a valuable part of our internship application process. More information is available at www.grunewaldguild.com.

Student's Name:

Referent's Name:

Position & Institution:

E-mail Address:

Primary Phone:

How long and in what capacity/capacities have you known this applicant?

Please comment on the applicant's preparedness in each of the following areas:

- 1) Overall academic engagement and commitment to learning

Excellent
Very Good
Good
Average
Below Average
Poor
Unknown

Comments:

- 2) Capacity for independent work and problem-solving

Excellent
Very Good
Good
Average
Below Average
Poor
Unknown

Comments:

- 3) Emotional maturity and ability to cope with challenging circumstances

Excellent
Very Good
Good
Average
Below Average
Poor
Unknown

Comments:

- 4) Sensitivity, interpersonal skills, and commitment to living harmoniously with others

Excellent
Very Good
Good
Average
Below Average
Poor
Unknown

Comments:

- 5) Willingness and ability to engage in ecumenical Christian community

Excellent

Very Good

Good

Average

Below Average

Poor

Unknown

Comments:

Please describe any other academic or personal issues which may affect the applicant's ability to successfully complete this internship.

Recommendation:

Highly recommend

Recommend

Recommend with reservations

Do not recommend

Comments:

Signature:

Date:

The completed reference may be returned to sarahjane@grunewaldguild.com or to Grünewald Guild, ATTN: Sarah Jane, 19003 River Rd., Leavenworth, WA 98826

Personal Reference

(Mentor, Pastor, or Supervisor – not a peer or relative)

This student has applied for an internship at the Grünewald Guild, an intentional arts community and retreat center that is grounded in ecumenical Christian hospitality. The feedback you provide is a valuable part of our internship application process. More information is available at www.grunewaldguild.com.

Student's Name:

Referent's Name:

Position & Institution:

E-mail Address:

Primary Phone:

How long and in what capacity/capacities have you known this applicant?

Please comment on the applicant's preparedness in each of the following areas:

- 1) Overall academic engagement and commitment to learning

Excellent
Very Good
Good
Average
Below Average
Poor
Unknown

Comments:

- 2) Capacity for independent work and problem-solving

Excellent
Very Good
Good
Average
Below Average
Poor
Unknown

Comments:

- 3) Emotional maturity and ability to cope with challenging circumstances

Excellent
Very Good
Good
Average
Below Average
Poor
Unknown

Comments:

- 4) Sensitivity, interpersonal skills, and commitment to living harmoniously with others

Excellent
Very Good
Good
Average
Below Average
Poor
Unknown

Comments:

- 5) Willingness and ability to engage in ecumenical Christian community

Excellent

Very Good

Good

Average

Below Average

Poor

Unknown

Comments:

Please describe any other academic or personal issues which may affect the applicant's ability to successfully complete this internship.

Recommendation:

Highly recommend

Recommend

Recommend with reservations

Do not recommend

Comments:

Signature:

Date:

The completed reference may be returned to sarahjane@grunewaldguild.com or to Grünewald Guild, ATTN: Sarah Jane, 19003 River Rd., Leavenworth, WA 98826